

Mark Whittenburg

General Counsel and Secretary

Mark Whittenburg is the General Counsel and Secretary and joined Core & Main in September 2017. He reports directly to CEO Steve LeClair.

Mark and his team of legal and compliance professionals focus on all legal, EHS/DOT contractual and compliance issues in real estate, fleet, construction and corporate governance, as well as compliance and legal matters including contracts, commercial transactions, employment law, litigation and regulatory affairs. He advises Core & Main's Senior Leadership Team and Board of Directors on legal and strategic matters such as merger and acquisition activities, as well as other growth opportunities.

Prior to joining Core & Main, Mark was based in Shanghai, China where he served as Vice President, Legal, for the Asia Pacific Region of Autoliv, a $10 billion Swedish automotive safety company. His earlier career included 15 years with GE, where he served in multiple roles with increased responsibility throughout the U.S. and Far East culminating as Vice President & General Counsel in Charlottesville, Virginia and finally Chief Compliance Officer in Shanghai, China.

Mark earned his J.D. from the University of Cincinnati College Of Law in 1992, after graduating from Hanover College in Indiana with a B.A. in Biology in 1989. His community service has included volunteering time with the Charlottesville/Abermarle Legal Aid Justice Center, Volunteer Lawyers for the Poor, and the Greater Cincinnati Minority Counsel Program. He also served as the President of the U.C. College of Law Alumni Association Board of Trustees.

